BIT OF HUMAN NATURE.

A Hasty Conclusion About a Woman That Was Changed Later.

Two little girls, occupied seats together on an elevated train the other night. Both were scantily dressed, hollow eyed and hungry looking. They were unmistakably of that class known as "cashgirls" employed in the downtown department stores, for each addressed the other by a number in lieu of a name.

Directly opposite them sat a fashionably dressed woman who was accompanied by a well groomed male escort. Upon their entrance the conversation of the little girls stopped abruptly and there was something pitiful in the earnestness with which both watched every move of the woman so stunningly gowned. Two pairs of abnormally keen though tired eyes thoroughly investigated every bit of finery in her apparel, from the highest plume of her hat to the soft, natty shoes which incased her shapely feet.

"Say, 76," whispered the smaller of the two girls, leaning toward her companion, "she's a real lady, she is. You can tell by her make up. Ain't that a beauty of a hat, though? And look at that diamond breastpin! Whew! I'll bet that hat cost all of—"

"Sh!" interrupted 76 in an undertone, "She'll hear you." There was a spell of silence as both girls leaned back with their heads resting against the top of the seat. They were enjoying the dazzling picture before them.

After glancing over a section of a newspaper which the man had given her the woman folded it up and handed it back to him.

"Did you get the tickets?" she asked. "Yes," was the answer in an indifferent tone.

"Let me see them." He extracted a small envelope from his vest pocket and handed it to her. "By the way," he remarked, "we will have to go tonight. I couldn't get good seats for tomorrow, and rather than miss it I took these."

"Tonight?" she repeated in a tone of vexation. "You know well enough that we can't go tonight. We have another engagement."

"Which we can conveniently cancel," he interpolated.

"Indeed we will not," she retorted, with a determined stamp of her foot.

A protracted argument followed which was not too low for the cashgirls to learn the drift.

"You can go to Mrs. Brown's alone," finally exclaimed the man, "and I will take your mother to the theater! We can call for you on our way home if you insist on going."

"You'll not go to the theater with anybody. You must and will go to Mrs. Brown's with me." Thus asserting herself, she deliberately tore the envelope containing the tickets in minute parts and threw them on the floor.

They left the train at the next station, he with a disgusted look on his face and she with head erect and a defiant glare in her bright eyes.

Scarcely had the rustle of her garments ceased to be heard when 76 sagely observed, "You're all off, 27. She ain't a real lady. It's only her fine dress what makes you think so. She's only an imitation, and no clerk would take her to a window if she wanted to make a sale."—Boston Herald.

An Unbiased Charge.

A group of lawyers were telling stories in the corridors of the city hall the other day, when one related a tale of a justice of the peace in one of the southern states where the narrator lived in his earlier days. A case was being tried before a jury in the justice's court, there being a large number of witnesses on both sides. The lawyers contended fiercely and the trial dragged on until the taking of evidence and the arguments before the jury had been concluded.

"Well, gentlemen, are you through?" asked the justice, addressing himself to the lawyers.

Upon their reply in the affirmative he then addressed himself to the jury, saying:

"Gentlemen, it is now the duty of the court to say something to you. You have heard the evidence of many witnesses and have heard what the lawyers have said. I will say that I know all the witnesses and know them to be such respectable persons that it will not be necessary for you to pay any attention to what they have said even under oath. Not one of them is to be believed. As for the lawyers, they are such scoundrels you need pay no attention to what they have said, and as for the two litigants, they are so mean it doesn't make any difference which one of them gets the worst of your decision. Retire and deliberate."—Washington Post.

In all the world today—in all the history of the world—no doctor or institution has treated and restored so many men as has the famous ERLE MEDICAL CO. of Buffalo, N. Y. This is due to the fact that the company controls some inventions and discoveries which have no equal in the whole realm of medical science. So much deception has been practiced in advertising that this grand old company now makes this startling offer: "We will send their costly and magically effective appliance and a who, month's course of restorative remedies, positively on trial, without expense, to any honest and reliable man." Not a dollar need be advanced—not a penny paid—till results are known to and acknowledged by the patient. The ERLE MEDICAL COMPANY's appliance and remedies have been talked of all over the world, till every man has heard of them. They restore or create strength, vigor, healthy tissue and new life. They give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body. Failure is impossible and age is no barrier. This "Trial without Expense" offer is naturally limited by the company to a short time, and application must be made at once. Write to the ERLE MEDICAL COMPANY, BUFFALO, N. The Trans-Mississippi and International Congress is composed of delegates from every State and Territory West of the Mississippi river. The idea of this exposition originated in that Congress at its session at Omaha in 1895, and the project has become a National enterprise and the National Commission has been organized and is in active service, there being one commissioner for each of the several departments of the Government. Most of the Trans-Mississippi States are well along in the way of gathering exhibits from their respective States and many of them have made liberal appropriations, while others are preparing exhibits through private enterprise.

Vice-President H. B. Maxson of Reno, has made arrangements whereby he can get Nevada exhibits, shipped from any point in the State along the line of the C. P. R. R., to Omaha and return, and he requests all persons who wish the interests of the State advanced, to co-operate with the Exposition County Commissioner of his county, whose name is shown above, and prepare some product of his county and send it to the nearest point on the C. P. R. R. from which place it will be sent to Omaha and exhibited, and returned to the same point at the close of the exposition, free of expense to the exhibitor. Full information should accompany everything sent for exhibition. Before sending anything to the line of the railroad a full description should be given. The Exposition Commissioner of the county, who in turn will notify the Vice-President, who will notify him what action to take, otherwise there might be many duplications. Apply to your County Representative for further information, and don't let this opportunity of advertising the resources of Nevada be lost.

Resolved, 'That the people of the island of Cuba are and of right ought to be free and independent.'

ANNEX THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

The opposition of Speaker Reed to the Newlands resolution is both inconsistent and unfortunate. He did not oppose the increase of the army on the large appropriation for war purposes. Why should he oppose a coal station between San Francisco and Manila? Why should he desire a stronghold for some enemy in the center of the great Pacific? Why should he want to deprive the United States of a resting place and a coaling station on the way to the Philippine Islands? He ought to take notice of current events. Does he not know that when Dewey destroyed the Spanish fleet, he landed the batteries and took possession of the bay of Manila, he made the annexation of the Sandwich Islands necessary? Why send 30,000 soldiers to occupy the Philippine Islands if we propose to abandon Hawaii and permit their occupation by an enemy to bar our progress to the East? The Newlands' resolution is right, patriotic and progressive. The Sandwich Islands must and will be annexed. Why waste time in fruitless and annoying opposition to right and manifest destiny?—Silver Knight Watchman.

It is now believed that Commodore Schley has decided to run two or three old hulks into the narrow entrance of Santiago harbor and sink them. This will settle any possibility of Cervera's escape and it is claimed that our United States battleship can stand outside and prevent the Spaniards from removing the obstructions. Cervera's fleet in the harbor would be powerless as there would be no room to manœuvre and their guns could not reach the vessel on guard. It is reported that Commodore Schley has inquired at Key West how many old hulks can be obtained there. The only danger to the vessel on guard, would be a night attack from the small torpedo boats of the fleet.

The efforts of the newspapers to keep up a show of war news in spite of the Government censorship is really pathetic. Every morning a hot bunch of war rumors are sent out, and after extras have been issued and the public fully worked up, a second edition is sent out denying all of the former rumors as "not confirmed." The trademarks of these reports are, "It is rumored that," and "The rumor that is not confirmed." The public is rapidly getting out of these fakes and anything with the trade mark of the rumor editor will be taken hereafter for just what it is worth.—Denver Stockman.

J. J. HOLLAND, the builder of the Holland submarine boat, will visit Washington for the purpose of making an offer to the Government to undertake to enter Santiago harbor, destroy the mines planted there and if advisable deal a few blows at Cervera's vessels. This perhaps will solve the problem of how to persuade Cervera to fight.

Now that the Spanish fleet is corralled the cry of "On to Havana" resounds through the United States, and Uncle Sam's boys will doubtless have possession of the city in a few weeks.

Trans-Mississippi Exposition.

Among the many features of the Trans-Mississippi Exposition which is to be opened next month at Omaha will be an Educational Convention on June 28, 29 and 30. An elaborate program has been arranged and many of the prominent educators of the land will be present. Dr. J. E. S. of this city is a member of the Advisory Board. Special rates have been arranged for teachers as far west as Ogden of one fare for the round trip and an effort will be made to secure a similar rate from Ogden west over the Central Pacific. Various other conventions will be held at Omaha during the exposition. The hotels have all made their rates reasonable and any imposition in any quarter, if reported to the Exposition Bureau, will be corrected at once and the party imposed upon will receive full satisfaction.

The mineral exhibit from Nevada is being properly prepared for display and is already attracting great attention and the employees are kept busy answering the thousands of questions asked about the minerals, where they were secured and information about the State. It is expected that everything will be in readiness for the grand opening ceremonies on the first of June.

Carson has decided to ring the fire bells in the city one hour prior to the departure of the First Nevada Troop, in order that everybody in the city may be notified and go to the depot to see the boys off.

CONDENSED WAR NOTES.

CAPE HAYTIE, Hayti, May 28.—A rumor has reached here of an important American success, but no confirmation of the report can be obtained.

MADRID, May 28.—It is officially announced that the Spanish reserve fleet under Admiral Camara has left Cadiz. It will probably maneuver for several days before leaving for its destination, which is unknown.

A private dispatch from a Spanish source says that Aguinaldo, after receiving arms and food pieces from Dewey, has declared himself in favor of Spain.

New York, May 28.—A dispatch from Key West says it is reported that the cruiser Brooklyn of Admiral Schley's squadron landed a large quantity of arms and ammunition and stores at Cienfuegos Tuesday. This was accomplished after a hot fight. The auxiliary cruiser New York arrived here this morning bound for Cramp's shipyard where her armament will be increased.

A dispatch to the World from Havana says: "General Blanco says he can easily take any landing in Cuba by the Americans. He represents that he has provisions and ammunition to last five months."

HONG KONG, May 28.—There is absolutely no truth in the report that the cruiser Baltimore has been damaged by an internal explosion. The U. S. auxiliary cruiser Zafiro arrived here at midnight. She reports Admiral Dewey short on ammunition and provisions.

Key West, May 28.—It is now almost certain that Commodore Schley has the Spanish fleet bottled up in Santiago harbor, all movements of the fleet are now on that supposition.

The U. S. gunboat Woodbury has arrived here bringing two newspaper correspondents who were captured by the Spanish in Cuba and have been exchanged for two Spanish officers captured on board the prize steamer Argonauta.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, May 28.—Twelve American warships are now outside Santiago harbor and the Spanish fleet is almost certainly inside.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The Navy Department has made public a dispatch from Admiral Dewey. He states that there is no change in the blockade, it is effective and the people of Manila can buy no provisions except rice.

MARCHING TO CUBA.

[Washington Post.]

Bring the good old bugle boys, we'll have another song,
Sing it with the spirit that has moved the world along,
Sailing o'er the ocean with a navy good and strong,
While we are sailing to Cuba.

Chorus:
Hurrah! hurrah! We'll sound the jubilee!
Hurrah! hurrah! the Cubans shall be free!
So we'll sing the chorus without banner o'er the sea,
While we go sailing to Cuba.

Dewey's dashing Yankee tars shall never reach our coast—
So the saucy Spaniards said—it was an idle boast, Didn't Dewey's cruisers give them an awful roast,
When they bombarded Manila?

How the Cubans shouted when they heard the cheerful sound,
How the Dons squeaked when their gunboats went aground,
How their pride was humbled when to their surprise they found
Their ships were sunken at Manila.

Now, in Porto Rico shriek the solid shot and shell,
There our tars are holding up the starry banner well,
Fighting Bob renews again the Spanish tongue in—well,
All our boys are fighting for Cuba.

Next our guns will thunder in Havana bay,
Sampson's fleet will follow just as Dewey led the way,
Where they sank the gallant Maine their shattered hulks we'll lay,
When we go sailing to Cuba.

Then we'll make a thoroughfare for freedom and her train
Through the fair Antilles to the far-off coast of Spain,
And our flag shall proudly float, the monarch of the main,
While we are fighting for Cuba.

AT FORT RUSSELL.

A Nevada Volunteer Tells About the Life of a Soldier.

One of the volunteers of the 2nd U. S. Volunteer Cavalry from Nevada, in a private letter to the JOURNAL, gives something of the troop's experience at Fort D. A. Russell:

"Every minute seems to claim some duty, there is so much to master that I find the days all too short. It was raining when we arrived here and has stormed almost every day since, but Colonel Torrey has the unanimous thanks of the troop for his thoughtful provision of warm barracks for us instead of tents, in which we would have suffered. One of the Colonel's pet bobbies is the selection of every officer by the men of the respective troops. The three officers from Nevada were unanimously elected and the compliment is highly appreciated by said officers. The mustering in to the United States service took place on the 19th inst. and made us in reality soldiers of Uncle Sam. The next move was to select a letter for the troop and this resulted in the choice of the letter 'M,' and we will now be known simply as 'Troop M, 2nd U. S. Volunteer Cavalry.'"

So far, in drill, athletics and games the Nevada boys have carried off the honors as well as in the record of physical excellence. Only one man failed on the examination and this was on account of defective sight. Thus far all of the men in the various troops have been accepted except about sixty. Men have arrived in all shapes, numbers and conditions, but are rapidly assuming a soldierly bearing.

Now, about the horses. More than half the number to be purchased for the use of the regiment are yet to be obtained. Colonel Torrey's attention has been called to the Nevada stock and he has decided to send his examining board into Nevada to look for horses, which will probably be done very soon. Although the Government is paying a good price, viz $110, for horses, the standard has been placed so high that few of those offered compare to the mark. I am sure, however, that Nevada can furnish two or three carloads of better horses than some of those already accepted.

You see a good many things about our probable destination. Let me say that as yet no one knows where we are going or when. It will not be settled until the time is known definitely when we are in readiness to move. From what I have learned and seen of Colonel Torrey, it is very apparent to me that we are not intended for anything spectacular, but for business. This much we do know; there is to be no Indian herding in our repertoire. Business with Spaniards, and mostly on the skirmish line, will be our work. We are to be equipped this week with Jorgensen carbines and 45-calibre Colt's revolvers, no extras. You will shudder when you think of our first parade at a gallop and without bridles—think of it.

The boys are getting used to the climate, which at first gave everybody a bad cold. Good food and regular hours are overcoming lots of little faults and all are bracing up to hard work with tactics and drill. The JOURNAL comes to us regularly and is highly appreciated. "VOLUNTEER," Fort D. A. Russell, May 23, 1898.

AT THE UNIVERSITY.

Reading of Theses and the Normal Class Reception.

The exercises at the University yesterday covered the reading of theses by members of the University graduating class, meeting of Alumni visiting committee and in the earlier part of the evening a meeting of the Normal Alumnae Association. While the exercises of the day were of decided interest from the students point of view, as there were able papers on various subjects as well as discussions, the Normal reception in the evening was the event which the young folks, as well as many of their elders looked forward to with pleasurable anticipation.

At the appointed hour in the evening the big gymnasium building was filled with guests and the young ladies of the Normal department vied with each other and the young gentlemen as well in receiving and entertaining the visitors. A brief but pleasing program comprising literary and musical numbers was presented and heartily enjoyed by all. Miss Howe of Carson captured the audience with a recitation in which she showed herself an artist. Promenading and dancing were enjoyable features of the evening and at the proper hour, the Normals proved themselves not only experts in providing food for thought and features of amusement, but furnished a bounteous supply of good things, liquid and solid, to please the palate.

The Normal reception was voted a success and the Normals of '98 were the recipients of many individual compliments and kind wishes.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in the most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts per bottle at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

Hired Webster For a Week.

Of course Webster was in demand by those who could afford to pay for his services. A sharp Nantucketer man is said to have got the better of the great defender of the constitution in an amusing way, however. He had a small case which was to be tried at Nantucket one week in June, and he posted to Webster's office in great haste. It was a contest with a neighbor over a matter of considerable local interest, and his pride as a litigant was at stake. He told Webster the particulars and asked what he would charge to conduct the case.

"Why," said Webster, "you can stay down there, he whole week, and my fee would be more than the whole case is worth. I couldn't go down there for less than $1,000. I could try every case on the docket as well as one, and it wouldn't cost any more, for one case would take my time for the entire week anyway."

"All right, Mr. Webster," quickly responded the Nantucketer. "Here's your $1,000. You come down, and I'll fix it so you can try every case."

Webster was so amused over this proposition that he kept his word. He spent the entire week in Nantucket and appeared on one side or the other in every case that came up for hearing. The shrewd Nantucketer hired Daniel out to all his friends who were in litigation and received in return about $1,500, so that he got Webster's services for nothing and made a good profit to boot.—Boston Herald.

SUMMONS.

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe county. The State of Nevada sends to Samuel M. Boen, Greeting:— You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Mary E. Boen as plaintiff in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after service on you of this Summons (exclusive of day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to recover a decree of judgment for a divorce from the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant, the substance of the complaint being that plaintiff has resided in a foreign country 8 months and more before suit commenced; that they later married January 1st, 1895, in said county, and defendant willfully deserted plaintiff more than one year hereafter, without cause, and has since that time lived with and more last before suit begun, when such neglect was not the result of poverty on the part of defendant which he could not have avoided by ordinary industry; that they have no children living; that defendant has no property; that plaintiff prays to be restored to her maiden name, Mary Elizabeth Harden, and to be divorced from the bonds of matrimony existing between her and defendant. All of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in her complaint.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand at Reno, this 15th day of April, A.
D. 1898.
